

Informal review boards can be done in any uniform. You must be wearing it properly. This review board will help you determine what will be expected of you for your next promotion. Recommendations may be made to help you properly prepare and know what to expect.

Formal review boards will be done in Dress Blues. Your uniform will be expected to be excellent. You will be expected to have met the expectations mentioned in your informal review board. NEVER expect to be promoted for meeting the minimum requirements of that grade. You will be evaluated to determine if you are capable and prepared to carry out the duties of the grade being reviewed.
